Vacancy notice FPI No. 415298
Programme Officer - Regional Crisis Response Planner – Stability and Peace
Contract Agent Function Group IV

We are

FPI staff around the globe are proud of the work that they are achieving and have a strong sense of purpose and motivation. They take, and value, a high level of personal responsibility. A policy-driven approach, a focus on priorities, solutions and impact, combined with a welcoming and supporting atmosphere, are part of the service's corporate culture. In terms of values, the service promotes professionalism and teamwork, encourages commitment and promotes respect. It also seeks to embed trust and fairness while prioritizing effective communication at all levels.

The Service reports directly to the HR/VP. The Service works in close cooperation with the other Commission services, as well as with the EEAS, both in headquarters and in delegations.

The EU Delegation in Dakar represents the European Union in Senegal, working in close coordination with the Embassies of the EU Member States.

The FPI Regional team in Dakar contributes to enhance the EU's crisis response and peace, stability and conflict prevention work in Western and Central Africa, through actions financed from the EU's NDICI Global Europe. The Regional team closely collaborates with Delegations in Western and Central Africa, relevant external actors and with FPI and other services in Brussels to conceptualise, elaborate and implement activities to be funded through the Partnership Instrument and the Instrument contributing to Stability and Peace.

The Regional Team in Dakar is composed of 12 very motivated staff members. Team spirit, a strong sense of initiative and responsibility is a common feature of all unit members.

We propose

We propose an attractive and challenging position as a Programme Officer - Regional Crisis Response Planner – Stability and Peace

We look for

We look for an experienced, dynamic, reliable, well-organised person with a good team spirit and excellent planning and coordination skills. The candidate should be pro-active, flexible and able to organise the work independently with a strong sense of responsibility. They should be able to adjust to multiple tasks even under tight deadlines.

A positive attitude, excellent writing and communication skills, excellent inter-personal skills and a good judgement are also essential as well as a good knowledge of EU financial and contractual procedures.

The candidate should have at least 3 years' experience in project management, preferably including for international crisis response contexts. A good knowledge of English and French is essential. Thematic knowledge of the portfolio of FPI crisis response and peace and stability actions in Western and Central Africa is a strong asset.

Security clearance: If not already acquired, the selected candidate should request it when taking up function.
