

EU-Haiti partnership

October 2025

Human Development

- Contributing to the Edikasyon pou viv ansanm programme which supports the construction of schools and setting up a TVET Campus in Ouanaminthe, access to education, building up education staff, a curricular reform
- Supporting the Multisectoral programme on food and nutrition security (PMSAN) which implements food security and nutrition policy
- Post-2021 earthquake recovery
- Building agricultural resilience and sustainability

Security & Stabilisation*

- Contributing to crisis response and conflict prevention with support for the Haitian National Police and the Multinational Security Support Mission
- Integrating youth in helping reduce community violence through a comprehensive socio-economic reinsertion programme in Port-au-Prince and small funds for initiatives in rural areas
- Supporting customs administration to mobilise domestic resources and prevent trafficking (arms, drugs, money laundering)
- Supporting the fight against transnational organised crime and improving regional drug policies
- Restoring basic public services and strengthening the resilience of populations in Port-au-Prince

Human Rights, Gender, & Justice*

Haiti and the EU are supporting the incubation of new and existing human rights organisations. They are piloting projects based on informal community-driven justice, while also supporting specialised legal units to treat serious financial crimes.

Humanitarian Aid*

The EU continues to support humanitarian emergency interventions and disaster preparedness initiatives to protect vulnerable populations in Haiti. That includes projects like the EU Humanitarian Air Bridge which delivered medical supplies and relief items in 2024.

Democratic, Economic & Financial Governance*

- Strengthening public financial management and the fight against corruption through budget support
- Integrating territorial management of the North-East region
- Supporting civil society organisations during elections
- Backing reforms strengthening rule of law and human rights
- Strengthening the socio-economic links between Haiti and the Dominican Republic
